REGISTRATION/MEMBERSHIP FEES: The conference registration fee is discounted for student presenters who pre-register. Like all conference presenters, students must pay membership dues, which entitle them to two issues of Studies in Popular Culture and one issue of Studies in American Culture. The conference fee includes two receptions (with cash bar).

2009 Student Conference/Registration Fee: $75.00

STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION: Students who wish their papers to be considered for the cash prizes to be awarded must submit three copies of the completed paper (in presentation form—that is, can be read in twenty minutes) to the Executive Secretary by September 1. Do not send papers by electronic means; you must submit hard copies. Student winners will be announced at the Friday evening reception open to all PCAS/ACAS conference participants. Student winners will also receive a year's free PCAS/ACAS membership.

Make checks payable to the Popular Culture Association (or PCAS). PAYMENT BY CREDIT CARD IS NOT AVAILABLE. Send check and completed registration form to the PCAS Executive Secretary:

Diane Calhoun-French
Provost
Jefferson Community and Technical College
109 E. Broadway
Louisville, KY 40202

Contact Diane at (502) 213-2621 or diane.calhoun-french@kctcs.edu with registration questions.

Please check that your e-mail address is legible and correct. Association business is generally conducted via e-mail.

Make your hotel reservations directly with the Hilton Wilmington Riverside at 1-888-324-8170. Be sure and identify yourself as a conference participant to receive the discounted rate (code: POP). A link to the Hilton's on-line reservation form will also be on PCAS' website (code: POP). The cut-off date for the discounted rate is August 30, 2009.

Refund Policy: No refund of membership portion of registration fee ($30) will be given. Requests for refund of registration portion of fee must be made by letter (no e-mails) with justification for non-participation. Once the final program is printed (September 15, 2009) no refunds will be made.
